[REDACTED]:

We are responding to your correspondence dated January 2, 2002, requesting relief on behalf of [REDACTED] in order to establish January 1, 2000 as the effective date for its S corporation election. Although we are unable to respond to your request as submitted, this letter provides useful information relating to your request.

Based on the information you have provided, [REDACTED] filed a Form 1120s for tax year 2000 on May 15, 2001. For purposes of Rev. Proc. 97-48, the return was not timely as it was filed after March 15, 2001. Consequently, automatic relief under Rev. Proc. 97-48 is unavailable in this matter. To seek relief, you may submit a private letter ruling request.

Announcement 97-4 (copy enclosed) provides guidance on seeking relief for late S corporation elections and inadvertent invalid S corporation elections. Generally, to request relief for a late or invalid S corporation election you must request a private letter ruling from the National Office. The procedures for requesting a private letter ruling are set out in Revenue Procedure 2002-1 (copy enclosed). In addition, Rev. Proc. 2002-1 requires taxpayers to submit a user fee along with their ruling request. The standard user fee for a private letter ruling is $6,000. However, taxpayers with gross income of less than $1 million on their last-filed tax return qualify for a reduced user fee in the amount of $500. If you are eligible to use the reduced fee provision you must include the statement described in §(B)(1)(b) of Appendix A with your request. Please review Appendix B for a sample format for requesting a private letter ruling.

If you decide to submit a formal request for a private letter ruling, please include the proper user fee (if applying under the reduced fee provisions, send a statement certifying gross income), and refer your request to our office by adding the following to the address:
